“It means we can provide more blanket law enforcement coverage and better communication between our agencies,” Sheriff Staly said. “This can only help us work more closely with them, and them with us in protecting the citizens of Flagler County.”

Sheriff Staly administered the oath of office to the three men at the Sheriff’s Office in Bunnell. They include: Bunnell Police Chief Tom Foster; Flagler Beach Police Chief Matt Doughney; and FBPD Lt. Randy Doyle.

“By allowing us to join the Flagler County Sheriff’s Office, this means we can increase the level of cooperation among our agencies,” Chief Doughney said. “It’s a win-win.”

Chief Foster, who oversees the Bunnell Police Department, agreed. “It’s great to have a sheriff we can work closely with, to benefit all the residents of Flagler County.”

Sheriff Staly administers the oath of office to the three men Monday, March 20, at the Sheriff’s Office, 901 E. Moody Blvd., Bunnell.
