

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

The Program	What does the program provide?	The program covers lodging (room charges and applicable taxes only) for FEMA qualified individuals from designated disaster areas. All other expenses are the responsibility of the guest.
	Who pays for the program?	The program is managed and funded by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) www.fema.gov . CLC Lodging (CLC) acts as a paying agent on behalf of FEMA.
	How does a hotel/lodging provider participate in the program?	Hotels/lodging providers wishing to participate in the Emergency Lodging Assistance (ELA) Program can enroll via the Program website (ela.corplodging.com). Upon successful enrollment, hotels can immediately bill for qualified guest stays. Properties are not required to have an existing contract with CLC for business travel in order to participate.
Qualified Check-Ins	How do displaced individuals qualify for assistance?	All displaced individuals needing assistance must contact FEMA for ELA qualification. If necessary, instruct non-qualified individuals to call FEMA [1-800-621-3362 or for the TTY caller at 1-800-462-7585] for further assistance or to visit www.disasterassistance.gov online.
Reservations and Check-in	Will reservations be made for guests?	Guest reservations are not required for this program, and FEMA does not pay for no-shows. However, FEMA may make guest reservations at their discretion. The hotel indicates within their dedicated online account Update Room Availability section whether rooms are available or not available. Hotels which reflect as having rooms available are published online at www.femaevachotels.com for FEMA and FEMA registrants seeking lodging. During FEMA disaster activation periods, it is vital that participating hotels toggle the switch to No Rooms Available during sold-out periods so that disaster survivors are not turned away.
	Are additional rooms available for family use?	At FEMA’s discretion, additional rooms may be provided on a case-by-case basis. CLC’s ELA website alerts the lodging provider on how many rooms each registered guest is eligible to receive.
	How long are guests allowed to stay paid by FEMA?	Each qualified guest is assigned a registration number with a FEMA-authorized start and end date. After the qualification end date, all charges are the responsibility of the guest. There is NO ADVANCE BILLING , only billing for stays that have already occurred.

Reservations and Check-in (Continued)	Does the ELA website display the guest's authorized length of stay?	Yes, authorized length of stay is obtainable through the Check Guest Qualification process. To complete the Check Guest Qualification process, complete the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On your MyELA page, select or enter a date of check in, followed by 3 approved fields of guest personal information from the FEMA guest completed Transitional Sheltering Assistance (TSA) Terms and Condition Form, in the Check Guest Qualification section • Click the Submit button • Upon successful verification of the Registration ID, the ELA website displays the guest's qualification information, including authorized length of stay
